Contents of this booklet

This booklet gives details of the full range of possibilities envisaged in the liturgical calendar and lectionary of Common Worship. Its use as a tool for the preparation of worship will require the making of several choices based first on the general celebration of the Christian year by the Church of England as a whole; second on the customary pattern of calendar in the diocese, parish and place of worship; and third on the pattern of services locally.

The first column comprises the Calendar of the Church with the days of the year. Observances that are mandatory are printed either in bold type (Sundays), in bold type (Principal Feasts and Holy Days) or in Arial (Festival). Optional celebrations (Lesser Festivals) and Commemorations are printed in ordinary Arial type and italic type respectively.

The second column comprises (a) the readings and psalms for the Principal Service on Sunday, Principal Feasts and Holy Days, and Festivals, and (b) Holy Communion readings and psalms for other days of the week. On the Sundays after Trinity, the Old Testament reading and its psalm are divided into two smaller columns, indicating a choice between a 'continuous' reading week by week or a reading 'related' to the Gospel for that day.

The third column comprises (a) the Third Service readings and psalms for Sundays, Principal Feasts and Holy Days, and Festivals, and (b) the readings and psalms for weekday Morning Prayer.

The fourth column comprises (a) the Second Service readings and psalms for Sundays, Principal Feasts and Holy Days, and the Festivals, and (b) the readings and psalms for weekday Evening Prayer.

Common of the Saints / Special Occasions

General readings and psalms for saints' days and Special Occasions can be found on pages 71-75; for some particular celebrations, other readings are suggested there.

Liturgical colours

Appropriate liturgical colours are suggested in this booklet. They are not mandatory; traditional or local use may be followed.

Colours are indicated by single letters: the first (always upper case) for the season or Festival; and occasionally a second (lower case) for an optional celebration on that day. Thus, for example, Gr for the celebration of a Lesser Festival whose liturgical colour is red, in an otherwise 'green' season.

The following abbreviations are used:

G	Green
P or p	Purple or Violet
P(La)	Purple or Lent Array
R or r	Red
W or w	White (Gold is indicated where its use be appropriate)
Alt	Alternative
Bp	Bishop
BVM	Blessed Virgin Mary
Cant	Canticle
Comps	Companions
DEL	Daily Eucharistic Lectionary
EP	Evening Prayer
HC	Holy Communion: used where additional references are given
	Provide alternative texts for use at a celebration of Holy Communion
	(most often the provision of a psalm or gospel)
Mm	Martyrs
MP	Morning Prayer

Notes on the Lectionary

Sundays, Principals Feasts and Holy Days and Festivals

Three sets of psalms and readings are provided for each Sunday, Principal Feasts or Holy Day and Festival.

The Principal Service lectionary (based on the Revised Common Lectionary) is intended for use at the principal service of the day (whether this service is Holy Communion or some other authorized form). In most Church communities, this is likely to be the mid-morning service, but the minister is free to decide which service time normally constitutes the Principal Service of the day. This lectionary may be used twice if required – for example, at an early celebration of Holy Communion and then again at a later one.

If only two readings are used at the Principal Service and that service is Holy Communion, the second reading must always be the Gospel reading. When the Principal Service lectionary is used at a service other than Holy Communion, the Gospel reading need not always be chosen.

The Second Service lectionary is intended for a second main service. In many churches, this lectionary may be the appropriate provision for a Sunday afternoon or evening service. A Gospel reading is always provided so that this lectionary can, if necessary, be used where the second main service is a celebration of Holy Communion.

The Third Service lectionary, with shorter readings, is intended where a third set of psalms and readings is needed and is most appropriate for use at an office. A Gospel reading is not always provided, so this lectionary is not suitable for use at Holy Communion.

Weekdays

The Common Worship Weekday Lectionary authorized by the General Synod in 2005 comprises a lectionary (with psalms) for Holy Communion, a lectionary for Morning and Evening Prayer, and tables of psalms for Morning and Evening Prayer.

The Daily Eucharistic Lectionary (based on the Roman Catholic daily Eucharistic lectionary) is a semi-continuous two-year lectionary with a wide use of scripture, though not complete coverage of the Bible. Two readings are provided for each day, the first from either the Old or New Testament, the second always a Gospel. Psalm provision is intended to be a brief response to the first reading. It is for use at Holy Communion normally in places with a daily or near-daily celebration with a regular congregation. It may also be used as an office lectionary.

The lectionary for Morning and Evening Prayer always provides two readings for each office, the first from the Old Testament and the second from the New Testament. These are generally in sequence. One of the New Testament readings for any particular day is from the Gospels.

The psalms for the Morning and Evening Prayer follow a sequential pattern in Ordinary Time (apart from the period from All Saints to the beginning of Advent).

In the periods from All Saints until 18 December, from the Epiphany until the Presentation of Christ in the Temple (Candlemas), from Ash Wednesday until Palm Sunday, and from the Monday after Easter Week until Pentecost, there is a choice of psalms at Morning and Evening Prayer: The psalms printed first reflect the theme of the season. Alternatively, the psalms from the Ordinary Time cycle may be used. The two sets are separated by 'or'.

From 19 December until the Epiphany and from the Monday of Holy Week until the Saturday of Easter Week, only seasonal psalms are provided.

Where more than one psalm is given, one psalm (printed in bold) may be used as the sole psalm at that office.

Guidance on how these options for saying the psalms are expressed typographically can be found in the 'Notes on the Lectionary' below.

A further cycle is provided (see table on page 76), which is largely the monthly sequential cycle of psalms given in the Book of Common Prayer.

A single psalm for use by those who only say one office each day is provided in Prayer During the Day in Common Worship: Daily Prayer.

Using the Lectionary tables

All Bible references (except to the Psalms) are to the New Revised Standard Version (New York, 1989). Those who use other Bible translations should check the verse numbers against the NRSV. Each reference gives book, chapter and verse, in that order.

References to the Psalms are to the Common Worship psalter, published in Common Worship: Services and Prayers for the Church of England (2000) and Common Worship: Daily Prayer (2005). A table showing the verse number differences between this and the psalter in the Common Prayer is provided on the Common Worship website:

(<https://www.churchofengland.org/prayer-and-worship/worship-texts-and-resources/common-worship/daily-prayer/psalter/psalter-verse>).

Options in the provision of readings or psalms are presented in the following ways:

- square brackets [xx] give either optional additional verses or Psalms, or a shorter alternative;
- 'or' indicates a simple choice between two alternative readings or courses of psalms;
- a psalm printed in bold may be used as the sole psalm at that office;
- on weekdays a psalm printed in parentheses (xx) is omitted if it has been used as the opening canticle at that office;
- a psalm marked with an asterisk may be shortened if desired.

Readings from the Apocrypha is not included in this lectionary.

In the choice of readings other than the Gospel reading, the minister should ensure that, in any year a balance is maintained between readings from the Old and New Testaments and that, where a particular biblical book is appointed to be read over several weeks, the choice ensures that the continuity of one book is not lost.

On the Sundays after Trinity, the Principal Service Lectionary provides alternative Old Testament readings and psalms. References in the left-hand column (under the heading 'Continuous') offer a semi-continuous reading of Old Testament texts. Such a reading and its complementary psalmody stand independently of the other readings. References in the right-hand column (under the heading 'Related') relate the Old Testament reading and the psalm to the Gospel reading. One column should be followed for the whole sequence of Sundays after Trinity.

The Lectionary 2023-2024

The Sunday and festival readings for 3 December 2023 (the first Sunday of Advent) to 30 November 2024 (the eve of Advent Sunday) are from Year B, which offers a semi-continuous reading of Mark's Gospel at the Principal Service on Sundays throughout the year. The weekday readings for Holy Communion are from Year Two of the Daily Eucharistic Lectionary (DEL).

Office readings are from Table 1 of the Weekday Lectionary at Morning Prayer, Old Testament 1 and New Testament 1; and, at Evening Prayer, Old Testament 2b in Ordinary Time and 2a in Seasonal Time, and New Testament 2.

Notes on the Calendar 3 December 2023- 30 November 2024

These notes are based on the Rules to Order the Christian Year (Common Worship: Times and Seasons, page 24-30)

Sundays

All Sundays celebrate the paschal mystery of the death and resurrection of the Lord. They also reflect the character of the seasons in which they are set.

Principal Feasts

On these days (printed in bold) Holy Communion is celebrated in every cathedral and parish church, and this celebration, required by Canon B 14, may not be displaced by any other celebration, and may only be dispensed with in accordance with the provision of Canon B 14A.

Except in the case of Christmas Day and Easter Day, the celebration of the Feast begins with Evening Prayer, on the day before the Feast, and the Collect at that Evening Prayer is that of the Feast. In the case of Christmas Eve and Easter Eve, there is proper liturgical provision (including a Collect) for the whole day.

The Epiphany may, for pastoral reasons, be celebrated on Sunday 7 January.

The Presentation of Christ in the Temple (Candlemas) is celebrated either on Friday 2 February or on Sunday 28 January.

All Saints' Day may be celebrated on Sunday 3 November (replacing the Fourth Sunday before Advent), with or without a supplementary celebration on Friday 1 November.

Other Principal Holy Days

These days (printed in bold), and the liturgical provision for them, may not be displaced by any other celebration.

Ash Wednesday (14 February) and Maundy Thursday (28 March) are Principal Holy Days. On both these days Holy Communion is celebrated in every cathedral or parish church, except where there is dispensation under Canon B 14A.

Good Friday (29 March) is a Principal Holy Day.

Eastertide

The Paschal character of the Great Fifty Days of Easter, from Easter Day (31 March) to Pentecost (19 May), should be celebrated throughout the season, and should not be displaced by other celebrations. No Festival day may be celebrated in Easter Week; and nor may any Festival – except for a Patronal or Dedication Festival – displaced the celebration of a Sunday (a memorial of the resurrection) during Eastertide. The paschal character of the season should be retained on those weekdays when saints' days are celebrated.

The three days before Ascension Day (6-8 May) are customarily observed as Rogation Days, when prayer is offered for God's blessing on the fruits of the earth and on human labour.

The nine days after Ascension Day until the eve of Pentecost (10-18 May) are observed as days of prayer and preparation for the celebration of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Ordinary Time

Ordinary Time comprises two periods in the year: first, the period from the day after the Presentation of Christ in the Temple until the day before Ash Wednesday, and second, that from the day after Pentecost until the day before the First Sunday of Advent.

During Ordinary Time, there is no seasonal emphasis, except that the period between All Saints' Day and the First Sunday of Advent is a time to celebrate and reflect upon the reign of Christ in earth and heaven.

Festivals

These days (printed in Arial), and the liturgical provision for them, are not usually displaced. For each day there is full liturgical provision for a Principal, Second and Third Service, and an optional so-called First Evening Prayer on the evening before the Festival where this is required.

Festival may not be celebrated on Sundays in Advent, Lent or Eastertide, the Baptism of Christ, Ascension Day, Trinity Sunday or Christ the King, or weekdays between Palm Sunday and the Second Sunday of Easter.

Otherwise, Festivals falling on a Sunday – namely in 2023-2024, Michael and All Angels (falling on the Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity) – may be kept on that Sunday or transferred to the Monday (or, at the discretion of the minister, to the next suitable weekday).

The Thursday after Trinity Sunday (30 May) may be observed as the Day of Thanksgiving for the Institution of Holy Communion (sometimes known as Corpus Christi), may be kept as a Festival.

Other Celebrations

Mothering Sunday falls on the Fourth Sunday of Lent (10 March). Alternative prayers and readings are provided for the Principal Service. Bible Sunday may be celebrated on 27 October, replacing the Last Sunday after Trinity, and appropriate prayers and readings are provided.

Local Celebrations

The celebration of the patron saint or the title of a church is kept either as a Festival or as a Principal Feast.

The Dedication Festival of a church is the anniversary of the date of its dedication or consecration. This is kept either as a Festival or as a Principal Feast. When kept as Principal Feasts, the Patronal and Dedication Festival may be transferred to the nearest Sunday, unless that day is already a Principal Feast or one of the following days: the First Sunday of Advent, the Baptism of Christ, the First Sunday of Lent, the Fifth Sunday of Lent, or Palm Sunday. If the actual date is not known, the Dedication Festival may be celebrated on 6 October (replacing the Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity), or on 27 October (replacing the Last Sunday after Trinity), or on a suitable date chosen locally. Readings can be found on page 77.

Harvest Thanksgiving may be celebrated on any Sunday in September-November, replacing the provision for that day, provided it does not displace any Principal Feast or Festival. Diocesan and other local provision may be made in the calendar of the saints to supplement the general calendar, in accordance with Canon B 6, paragraph 5.

Every 5th Sunday as a day of Fast and Pray for the Province of the Anglican Church in South East Asia.

Diocesan and other local provision may be made in the calendar of the saints to supplement the general calendar, in accordance with Canon B 6, paragraph 5.

Every 5th Sunday as a day of Fast and Pray for the Province of the Anglican Church in South East Asia.

Lesser Festivals

Lesser Festival (printed in ordinary Arial type, in black) are observed in a manner appropriate to a particular place. Each is provided with a Collect, which may supersede the Collect of the week. For certain Lesser Festivals a complete set of Eucharistic readings is provided, and for others appropriate may be selected from the Common of the Saints (see pages 71-72). These readings may, at the minister's discretion, supersede the Daily Eucharistic Lectionary (DEL). The weekday psalms and readings at Morning and Evening Prayer are not usually superseded by those for Lesser Festivals, but at the minister's discretion psalms and readings provided on these days for use at Holy Communion may be used instead at Morning and Evening Prayer.

The minister may be selective in the Lesser Festival that are observed and may also keep some, or all of them, as Commemorations, perhaps especially in Advent, Lent and Easter were the character of the season ought to be sustained. If the Day of Thanksgiving for the Institution of Holy Communion (30 May) is not kept as a Festival in 2024, it may be kept as a Lesser Festival.

When a Lesser Festival falls on a Principal Feast of Holy Day, A Festival, a Sunday, or on a weekday between Palm Sunday and the Second Sunday of Easter, its celebration is normally omitted for that year. However, where there is sufficient reason, it may, at the discretion of the minister, be celebrated on the nearest available day.

Commemorations

Commemorations (printed in italic) are made by a mention in prayers of intercession. They are not provided with Collect, Psalm and Readings, and do not replace the usual weekday provision at Holy Communion or at Morning and Evening Prayer. The minister may be selective in the Commemorations that are made.

Only where there is an established celebration in the wider Church or where the day has a special local significance may a Commemoration be observed as a Lesser Festival, with liturgical provision from the Common of the Saints (pages 71-72). Asian Personal and events (page 7).

In designating a Commemoration as a Lesser Festival, the minister must remember the need to maintain the spirit of the season, especially of Advent, Lent and Easter.

Days of Discipline and Self-Denial

The weekdays of Lent and every Friday in the year are days of discipline and self-denial, with the exception of Principal Feasts, Festival outside Lent, and Fridays from Easter Day to Pentecost. The day preceding a Principal Feast may also be appropriately kept as a day of discipline and self-denial in preparation for the Feast.

Ember Days

Ember Days should be kept, under the bishop's directions, in the week before an ordination as days of prayer for those to be ordained deacon or priest.

Ember Days may also be kept even when there is no ordination in the diocese as more general days of prayer for those who serve the Church in its various ministries, both ordained and lay, and for vocations. Traditionally they have been observed on the Wednesday, Friday and Saturday in the week before the Third Sunday of Advent, the Second Sunday of Lent, and the Sundays nearest to 29 June and 29 September.

Noted on Collects

All the contemporary language Collects and Post Communions, including the Additional Collects, may be found in Common Worship: Collects and Post Communions (Church House Publishing: London, 2004) or (<https://www.churchofengland.org/prayer-and-worship/worship-texts-and-resources/common-worship/common-material/collects-post-communications>)

Where a Collect ends 'through Jesus Christ...now and for ever', the minister may omit the longer (Trinitarian) ending and use the shorter ending, 'through Jesus Christ our Lord', to which the people responds, 'Amen'. The longer ending, however, is to be preferred at a service of Holy Communion.

The Collect for each Sunday is used at Evening Prayer on the Saturday preceding, except where that Saturday is a Principal Feast, or a Festival, or the eve of Christmas Day or Easter Day. The Collect for each Sunday is also used on the weekdays following, except where other provision is made.

Canticles:

Magnificat (Luke 1.46-55)

- 1 My soul doth magnify the Lord :
and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
- 2 For he hath regarded :
the lowliness of his handmaiden.
- 3 For behold, from henceforth :
all generations shall call me blessed.
- 4 For he that is mighty hath magnified me :
and holy is his Name.
- 5 And his mercy is on them that fear him :
throughout all generations.
- 6 He hath shewed strength with his arm :
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
- 7 He hath put down the mighty from their seat :
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
- 8 He hath filled the hungry with good things :
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
- 9 He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel :
as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son :
and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be :
world without end. Amen.

Benedictus (Luke 1.68-79)

- 1 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel :
for he hath visited, and redeemed his people;
- 2 And hath raised up a mighty salvation for us :
in the house of his servant David;
- 3 As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets :
which have been since the world began;
- 4 That we should be saved from our enemies :
and from the hands of all that hate us;
- 5 To perform the mercy promised to our forefathers :
and to remember his holy covenant;
- 6 To perform the oath which he sware to our forefather Abraham :
that he would give us,
- 7 That we being delivered out of the hands of our enemies :
might serve him without fear,
- 8 In holiness and righteousness before him :
all the days of our life.
- 9 And thou, child, shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest :
for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;
- 10 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people :
for the remission of their sins;
- 11 Through the tender mercy of our God :
whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us;
- 12 To give light to them that sit in darkness,
and in the shadow of death :
and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son :
and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be :
world without end. Amen.
